What is weather?

In this block, the user will learn more about the different elements which make up the weather, they also learn words to describe the weather, as well as some aspects of extreme weather conditions.

Aims

- Learn more about the three elements that make up weather.
- Learn words to describe weather.
- Learn about extreme weather conditions.

Teacher’s notes

Screen 1 presents what involved in the study of meteorology. Screen 2 students are presented with way to describe weather and the typical symbols used to indicate different types of weather. Screen 3 requires students to answers questions about the weather. Some extreme weather phenomena are presented and practised in screen four. In the final activity, students are asked to complete sentences about the weather by choosing the right word.

Approach

This block is basically designed for individual work. However, students could be asked to describe the weather in their area. Pre-teach What’s the weather like today?